Latvia's airline airBaltic resumes regular flights between Vilnius and Oslo, Norway. Hungary's air carrier Wizz Air resumed flights to Oslo on Wednesday. Regular flights have also been restored on routes to Frankfurt, Riga and Tallinn. Lithuania's government on Wednesday gave the go-ahead to resume flights between Lithuania and Germany as well as the Netherlands.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs has received requests to resume scheduled flights in other directions as well. When submitting proposals to the Government on the possibilities of resuming flights, the Ministry cooperates with the responsible Lithuanian authorities and assesses such possibilities in consideration of the epidemiological situation and the recommendations of the World Health Organization (WHO). No other routes are currently authorised.
